Congratulations! You’re admitted.

Graduate Student Resource Guide

You are about to begin an exciting journey of self-improvement, professional growth, and academic excellence. The Graduate School offers current students comprehensive services in the areas of academic, professional, and research development, both on campus and online. The Graduate School is vested in you as a graduate student and is one of many resources available to assist you during your time at UTSA.

The Graduate School

Student Success Events
As a graduate student at UTSA, you have the opportunity to take learning beyond the classroom, enhancing your academic experience in all stages of your graduate career. By attending these free events, you will sharpen your skills in the areas of academic and professional/career development, and you will take an active role in your success as a student and career professional. Events include:

- Graduate Student Success Workshops
- Graduate Student Career Week
- International Graduate Student Success Series
- Special Seminars

Visit our website to see the workshops and events available this semester. Workshops and events are categorized with a helpful key to make it convenient for you to find what you need, when you need it.
